

According to Wright artist share a unique relationship in the kingdom of God. A few of ^{elements} which include:

1. Creativity as a reflection of God's image.
2. Conveying truth and hope
3. Engaging with the brokenness of the world.
4. Creating space for encounters
5. Participating in Creation.

where in wright is this?

4. Beauty. According to Wright, what can/should/do artists do for the kingdom?

I agree with all of the above and would say the main thing is to help and tell story there are to further the mission of God by help more people picture the story.

artists job is to display Gods beauty and the hope he gives us of returning again at some point. artist can also portray stories from the Bible to help people better understand them.

4. Beauty. According to Wright, what can/should/do artists do for the kingdom?

Beauty:

Im having trouble finding anything about this. Hopefully you can.

"Genuine art is thus itself a response to the beauty of creation, which itself is a pointer to the beauty of God," (223)

"... perhaps it will be the artists who are best at conveying both the hope and the surprise," (225).

Artists can portray God's creation through their art
They can use their art as away to evangelize + spread God's word through their art.
